

Beaver County Anti Human Trafficking Coalition

Our Mission: To prevent and eradicate human trafficking in Beaver County by defending the dignity of trafficking victims; advocating for justice; providing educational outreach; and collaborating to facilitate the growth of resources and community partnerships providing services to victims.

The Reality

- 27 Million:

Number of people in modern-day slavery across the world.

- 12.3 Million:

Number of adults and children in forced labor around the world (9.8 million are exploited by private agents for labor or commercial sex purposes; 2.5 million are forced to work by the State or rebel military groups).

- 2 Million:

Number of children exploited by the global commercial sex trade.

- 80%:

Percent of transnational victims who are women and girls.

- 50%:

Percent of transnational victims who are minors.
